

The ReStore is a materials recycling center and home improvement store that sells new and used materials to the public at below-retail prices; we have a wide assortment of goods - everything but clothing! Proceeds help pay for HFHT's home building program.

By accepting these materials we're helping Taos County go green by keeping items out of the land fill. We encourage 'repurpose and reuse' with pictures and Facebook posts (www.facebook.com/TaosReStore) of great ideas on how to use something old and make something new!

Habitat for Humanity of Taos Mission

Statement:

HFHT works in partnership with people from all walks of life to build houses, hope, and community, with people in need and, by so doing, witness Gods love in action. HFHT promotes affordable homeownership for Taos area residents by constructing simple, adequate houses through the cooperative efforts of volunteers, donors, partner families and staff.

We are not funded by Habitat for Humanity International, but tithe back to them 10% of our undesignated funds to help build globally. So your donations and purchases help us continue in our mission.

No Interest, No Profit

Habitat is an international, ecumenical, nonprofit Christian organization that builds homes with people who cannot otherwise afford to own a home at today's prices. A 30 year interest-free mortgage comes with the home, making it truly affordable.
